Services at the Presbyterian Church at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. Sacrament of the Lord's Supper and reception of members in the morning.

Praise meeting in the evening. Subject: "Songs of the Pilgrimage." Short addresses by the Pastor and others. A large chorus choir to lead the congregation, and a splendid musical program.

"After the Ball."

It was a "decided hit." Experts called it a "sky-scraper." It was pitched pretty low; but when the Captain inflated his lungs and struck it it soared higher than Patsy's best notes. It was just then that the left fielder ran about three miles "after the ball." Yes it was "Spaulding's League" and had been lifted by a wagon-tongue base ball bat bought of Cagwin & Noteware. By the way—this firm has a new assortment, and is well supplied with fine chestnuts such as Harris' "After the Ball" and other songs.

"The Anarchist"

This is Savage's new novel. Stead's new book is, "If Christ Came to Chicago." Both of these are for sale at Cagwin & Noteware's.

They also have the new book, concerning the noble work of Chas. Crittenton, entitled "The Traffic in Girls" and "Florence Crittenton Missions."

All kinds of stationery and school supplies at John G. Foxes. School books of every description, slates and blank books, etc. s1

FISHING TACKLE.—New cane poles, speck hooks, braided linen lines and a general assortment of fishing tackle, have been received at Cagwin & Noteware's.

J. F. EGAN DEAD.

Nevada's State Treasurer Passes Away After a Long Illness.

About 2 o'clock yesterday morning John F. Egan, State Treasurer of Nevada, died at his residence in this city.

Deceased has been unwell for several weeks, being afflicted with stomach troubles. He went to San Francisco some months ago for treatment but was beyond medical aid, and returned to Carson about three weeks ago.

For years John Egan has been identified with the mining industry of the Comstock. In 1890 he was nominated for Treasurer on the Republican ticket, and elected by a large majority. After his election he moved his family to Carson where they have resided up to the present time.

Last night's Virginia Chronicle says:

"By the death of the State Treasurer, Nevada loses a prominent official and an old resident, and many Comstockers are bereft of an old and esteemed friend. The news of Mr. Egan's death has been received here with many expressions of sorrow and regret."

"Mr. Egan, who was best known on the Comstock, came to America in 1851. He left New York and arrived in California in 1854, and was engaged in mining in Placer county for some time. In the early sixties he came to the Comstock, where he lived for a short time. Then he spent a period in Wyoming, Colorado and New Mexico, finally returning to Virginia in 1874. After his return to the Comstock he resided here steadily till 1890, and was Superintendent of the Andes mine for several years."

"His term as Treasurer would have expired with the year. During his incumbency he was honorable and upright and discharged his duties with capabilities."

"He was an honorary member of the Emmett Guard of this city and a member of the local branch of the Catholic Knights of America. He leaves four children—two daughters, Mrs. Dick Gallagher and Miss Lillie, and two sons, John and James."

The funeral will take place in Virginia on Monday, and the remains were escorted to the depot at 5 o'clock last evening by a detachment of Co. F, Carson Guard.

Pushing Ahead.

Addison, Pa., March 14.—The Common-wealers, escorted by a Sheriff's posse armed with Winchester, were escorted out of town at 9:30 this morning. Three cheers were given for the people of Addison.

The next stop will be Camp U. S. Grant, at Grantsville, Md., twelve miles ahead. None of the coke strikers were in Coxe's forces. Coxe was not present. It is said that he will rejoin the forces tonight.

Chester, Pa., April 14.—The Philadelphia detachment of Coxe's army left South Chester this morning for Wilmington, Del., a hundred strong.

Omaha, Neb., April 14.—The Union Pacific road refuses to carry Kelley's army any further than Cheyenne. There has been no trouble thus far.

A Double Tragedy.

Gainesville, Tex., April 14.—Thomas Murrell, a leading farmer of this county, residing ten miles east of here, while attending to his stock this morning about daylight, was shot through the heart twice by his farm hand, Frank Crews.

Mrs. Murrell heard her husband's agonizing screams and ran out to the barn to assist him. Crews at once grabbed her around the waist and fired two bullets into her head, causing her instant death. The double murderer then robbed Murrell's body of a sum of money, mounted a horse and departed for the home of Ed. Murrell, a son of the dead man, residing two miles up the lane, saying he was going there to kill Ed and his family.

The cause of the murder was a quarrel over wages. Fifty farmers immediately organized a posse and, armed with Winchester, began a search for the murderer.

COAST NEWS.

The people of Readley are still hunting for some clue to the disappearance of Rancher Wootton, and the belief that he was murdered is becoming firmly fixed in their minds.

Police Sergeant A. M. Willson at Salt Lake was not killed by burglars as first reported. His pistol was accidentally discharged while he was going off duty, mortally wounding him.

It is claimed that three of the Roscoe train robbers have been captured. Walt Thorn, Pat Fitzsimmons and John Comstock, residents of Little Tejuja, are now in prison at Los Angeles, charged with the crime.

Friday a gang of men was engaged in burning brush on the Story ranch back of the Grand View Hotel, on the Mount Hamilton road, near San Jose, when the fire got beyond their control and spread rapidly. Before under control 100 cords of cut wood were burned.

Jack Redding and David Harper owners of the celebrated Dos Cabazos mine, in old Mexico, became involved in a quarrel at Albuquerque, N. M., Friday, and shot and killed each other. These make five deaths of the owners of this property, which seems to carry with it a strange fatality. Only one owner survives. Five others have met violent deaths.

Near Rio Bravo, Kern county, a patch of ground with so much alkali that a man would sink to his shoe tops while walking on it, was irrigated and sowed with corn and grain. The rankest growth followed, and after three years of irrigation and cropping there is no trace of the alkali except on the tops of the cheeks, while just over the line on unimproved land the ground is as white as a bank of beautiful snow. There was no drainage; nothing except what has been related was done to improve the soil.

Foster's Forecast.

Copyrighted 1894 by W. T. Foster.
St. Joseph, Mo., April 14.—My last bulletin gave forecasts of the storm wave to cross the continent from April 16th to the 29th, and the next will reach the Pacific coast about the 21st, cross the western mountains by the close of the 22d, the Great Central valleys from the 23d to the 26th.

The warm wave will cross the western mountains about the 21st, the Great Central valleys about the 23d, and the Eastern States about the 25th. The cool wave will cross the western mountains about the 24th, the Great Central valleys about the 26th, and the Eastern States about the 28th.

Cut His Throat.

San Jose, Cal., April 14.—L. W. Denan, who has been deputy in the Street Commissioner's office, was found in the office at 9:15 this morning with a gash in his throat. He had entered the office about 9 and, after writing a note, took a razor and inflicted the wound, which it is thought will not prove fatal, although he lost a great deal of blood.
